

Thank You!

Congrats on losing a tooth!

Thanks for placing that baby tooth under your pillow and inviting me into your home. It was really exciting to get to see you, and it's totally okay that you were asleep. You're growing like a weed, so it's important you get your rest!

I want to thank you for taking such awesome care of your teeth and sharing those that you no longer need with me. As you may know, I can only take the very best teeth with me to Fairyland. Imagine if I built my castle with yellow teeth or teeth with cavities? That wouldn't be very pretty or structurally sound!

However, your tooth is shiny, white, and strong ... just perfect for the latest addition to my castle! It was almost tooth good to be true. (Haha, get it?)

In exchange for your tooth, I left a surprise under your pillow. I hope you like it as much as I like your tooth.

Remember, keep brushing and flossing every day, and before you know it, you'll have the brightest smile around!

Oh, and try to keep your room picked up so I don't trip or fly into anything when I visit you. Thanks so much, and I'm really looking forward to seeing you again soon.

With love and magic,

Tooth Fairy

P.S. What kind of award does a tooth never want to get?

Answer: A plaque
